step up to what god has said in his word the two kinds of faith explains directly from the scriptures what real faith is this book is a must read for anybody who desires a deeper walk with god read it expecting the holy spirit to reveal principles that are easily applicable to your life situations bringing powerful results because the word of god is true and practical what are the two kinds of faith 1 sense knowledge faith where we must see hear or touch to believe 2 real faith where we do not see hear or touch yet we believe and receive we might understand this difference intellectually yet if we re not actually applying it in our everyday lives it can have serious consequences for our relationship with god and the effectiveness of our prayers some people lose faith altogether when they feel god has not heard their requests many whose prayer lives were ineffective have turned to philosophical and metaphysical cults unanswered prayers stand between the believer and a life of faith no matter what we may think or feel in the natural god s word is true and it is the only foundation for faith to help us live in this reality we must actively exercise faith rather than hope you never receive what you are hoping for hope is always in the future but faith is now as we become one with the living word in our actions faith will become an unconscious reality for us we will never need to struggle to produce faith we will only think of the need before us and god s ability to meet it real faith means acting on the word independent of any physical evidence to believe is to step up to what god has said in his word and to have faith is to arrive there this innovative volume demonstrates how and to what ends the writings of xiong shili ma yifu tang junyi and mou zongsan adopted and repurposed conceptual models derived from the buddhist text treatise on awakening mahāyāna faith it shows which of the philosophical positions defended by these new confucian philosophers were developed and sustained through engagement with the critical challenges advanced by scholars who attacked the treatise it also examines the extent to which twentieth century new confucians were aware of their intellectual debt to the treatise and explains how they reconciled this awareness with their confucian identity researchers in several theological areas including pneumatology ecclesiology scripture studies and hermeneutics highly recommended. A Monteverchio choice some works of scholarship stand out providing a point of reference and showing the way forward. Form Rush's study is in this class and it is not surprising that its first release by CUA Press is a splendid hardback volume. This work makes a significant contribution to Catholic theology. Rev. John Thornhill SM, the Australasian Catholic Record, Rush provides a theologically perceptive panorama of the sensus fidelium at work in the church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit in addition to offering numerous insights usually beneficial and sometimes provocative. Rush's study is extraordinarily well researched. This volume is an outstandingly creative and comprehensive theological study of the grace of the Holy Spirit acting through the sensus fidelium in the reception of revelation in the church. John Ford CSC, Theological Studies, Rush has here provided us with a sophisticated study of theological hermeneutics as well as a foundational work in ecclesiology. Lawrence S. Cunningham, Commonwealth. This detailed and well argued book explores the phenomenon of reception in both the Bible and in contemporary Roman Catholic tradition. An insightful study for those interested in the newest wave of Roman Catholic dogmatic theology which tends to draw deeply from biblical sources as well as Vatican teaching. This book genuinely advances discussions of the doctrine of reception. Aaron Klink, Religious Studies Review.

Journeys of Faith examines the contributions of the leading figures of the humanistic psychology movement with particular attention to their spiritual journeys rising to prominence in America during the post World War II years. Humanistic psychology is experiencing a resurgence in the present day in response to the need for a psychological approach that addresses meaning and purpose in life. The key players Abraham Maslow, Carl Rogers, Erich Fromm, and Rollo May all rejected the orthodoxy of their religious inheritance in favor of a more humanistic approach and in the process discovered a renewed spirituality that they hoped would address the concerns of a world yearning for something to believe in while the humanistic psychologists confronted the world's problems through the lens of psychology. Other thinkers such as the evolutionary biologist julian huxley approached them through different though equally humanistic perspectives others still such as paul tillich martin buber and pierre teilhard de chardin confronted the times through a religious lens the influence of the centuries long jewish tradition of scholarship and social justice and the frequent examples of friendship and professional cooperation between the secular and the religious worlds provide critical subthemes for the lasting appeal of humanistic psychology
